Millennium Announcement Texts

There is a year we marked and waited for
As the time our futures would begin.
That year has come.
As the world celebrates the turning of a millennium,
We celebrate the turning of a page in our lives.
Please join us
The Rosemount High School Class of '99 Commencement
Friday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m.
The football field

As we celebrate the dawning of new opportunities, the world celebrates with us.
Join us for the graduation ceremony of the millennium as the Rosemount High School Class of 2000 begins anew.
Friday, May 30th, 7:30 p.m.
High School Fieldhouse

Many years ago
Monumental goals were set.
The challenges have been met,
And it is time to begin anew.
As the world begins time atain,
Join us as we do the same.
Rosemount High School Class of '99 Commencement.
June 11, 8:00 p.m., in the auditorium.
The future has no limits.

My Gift
I cannot give you cloudless skies –
A life that's free from cares and sighs,
But I can wish you a heart that sings
And the thrill of discovering beautiful things.
I cannot give you wealth or fame,
But I can wish you just the same Laughter, Love...
Friendly faces...
And golden moments the heart embraces.

Class Poem
"Facing Graduation"

Faces of old and faces of new,
People we know and people we knew.
Growing together then drifting apart,
Always an ending and now a new start.
At graduation we all grow nearer
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final goodbye,
One last embrace and one more cry,
A “keep in touch” and a “promise I will,”
A “remember when” but, better still,
A place in my heart, you'll always stay,
This is what's said as we go our own way.

We May Never Pass This Way
Dreams – so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away.
Peace – like the silent dove,
Should be flyin' but it's only just begun.
Like Columbus in the olden days,
We must gather all our courage,
Sail our ships out on the open sea:
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up – always up.
Seals and Crofts

We are as great as the dreams we dream
As great as the love we bear
As great as the values we redeem
And the happiness we share
We are as great as the truth we speak
As great as the help we give
As great as the destiny we seek
As great as the life we live.
Anonymous

We have been searching for Something deep inside, to know
Our lives have meaning.

It is good to be a seeker,
But sooner or later, a seeker becomes a finder.
Then it is well to give what was found . . .
A gift unto the world,
For whoever will accept it.

Think of all the men who never knew the answers:
think of all of those who never even cared.
Still there are some who ask why,
who want to know, who dare to try.
Every now and then we meet that kind of man;
here he comes again, and now he's gone.

Rod McKuen

Look to this day
for it is life,
the very life of life.
In its brief course lie all the realities and truths of existence the joy of growth
the splendor of action,
the glory of power.
For yesterday is but a memory
and tomorrow only a vision;
But today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day.

.... Ancient Sanskrit Poem

I've been going a long time now, along the way I've learned some things.
You have to make the good times yourself,
take the little times and make them into big times,
and save the times that are all right for the ones that aren't so good.

Rod McKuen

Opportunity

They do me wrong who say I come no more When once I knock and fail to find you in:
For every day I stand outside your door.
And bid you wake, and rise to fight and win.

Wait not for precious chances passed away!

Weep not for golden ages on the wane.
Each night I burn the records of the day;
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Though deep in mire, wring not your hands and weep:
I lend my arm to all who say, "I can!"
No shamefaced outcast ever sank so deep,
But yet might rise and be again a man!

Walter Malone

Life, so they say, is but a game and they let it slip away.
Love, like the autumn sun, should be dying,
but it's only just begun.

Like the twilight in the road up ahead.
they don't see just where we're going,
All the secrets in the universe whisper in our ears
and all the years
will come and go,
take us up, always up,
We may never pass this way again.

Seals and Crofts

Still around the corner there may wait
A new road or a secret gate:
And though I have passed them by,
A day will come at last when I Shall take the hidden paths that run
West of the Moon, East of the Sun.
- - Tolkien

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.
As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others.
You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be; and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

Desiderata

from; Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening
by Robert Frost

The woods are lovely; dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep.
And miles to go before I sleep.

Everytime we say hello to some new encounter
we're on our way toward good-bye.
Some distance from the actual phrase
but moving toward it
all the same.
The distance between those two words becomes a little less as we grow older.
Be aware then that tomorrow is only tomorrow.

There is nothing to fear except the coming of another day.

Rod McKuen

We had joy, we had fun.
we had seasons in the sun;
But the wine and the song like the seasons have all gone.

All our lives we had fun,
we had seasons in the sun;
But the stars we could reach were just starfish on the beach.

This is what it's all about.
To be born
to be free to be transformed to be made whole.

To dream and love and create with faith
a concern for you and an awareness of all that is life.

-Robert Fulton-

One of the very pleasant things about friendship...
the “do-you-remember” moments...

We are as great as the dreams we dream
As great as the love we bear
As great as the values we redeem
And the happiness we share.
We are as great as the truth we speak
As great as the help we give
As great as the destiny we seek
As great as the life we live.

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises. If a man does not keep pace with his companions perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

It isn't ever the same. In time, I'll change, And you, And the currents of our lives. But the image of this moment will never fade. This moment and you are unforgettable.

Like the fool I am and I'll always be
I've got a dream, I've got a dream.
They may change their minds
but they can't change me.
I've got a dream, I've got a dream,

If you're going my way I'll go with you.

Jim Croce

I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good, therefore, that I do to any human being Let me do it now.
Let me not defer it or neglect it
For I shall not pass this way again.

Traditional Prayer

To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones together;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Erica Jong

Do not be afraid of enthusiasm.

You need it.

You can do nothing effectually

Francois Guizot

Often the difference between a successful man and a failure is not one's better abilities or ideas, but the courage that one has to bet on his ideas,

to take a calculated risk
-and to act.

Maxwell Maltz

Each time you accept a thought that is greater than what you have accepted as your standard, that thought activates yet another part of your brain into purposeful use. Each time you do that, the greater thought will offer itself as a carrier to expand your reasoning from that point.

That will activate other portions of your brain for more thought, for more receiving, for more knowing.

You know, it is very simple to be a genius. All you have to do is think for yourself.

Ramtha

There are risks

to a program of action,

but they are far less than the long-range risks and costs of comfortable inaction.

John F. Kennedy

Stopping, starting,
being diverted,
becoming impatient,
is indirect and the least successful means of accomplishment.

Nothing moves
but by degrees.

Each step forward,
no matter how small,
is one step less
that has to be taken.

Brian Adams

The method of the enterprising is to plan with audacity,

and execute with vigor;
to sketch out
a map of possibilities;

And then
to treat them
as probabilities;

And then
to treat them
as probabilities.

Bovee

Victory

Napoleon

Follow your heart, your dreams, your desires. Do what your soul calls you to do, whatever it is, and allow it to be finished; then you will go on to another adventure. You will never be judged - unless you accept the judgment of those around you. And if you accept their judgment, it is only your will to do so- for the experience.

Ramtha

We are not here just to survive and live long...
We are here to live and know life
in its multi-dimensions to know life in its richness, in all its variety.

And when a man lives multidimensionally, explores all possibilities available, never shrinks back
from any challenge,
Goes, rushes to it, welcomes it, rises to the occasion
then life becomes a flame, life blooms.

Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh

It seems that you are happy
and successful in life
if you are doing your thing, you know specifically what your thing is, and that which you are doing earns you the respect of other people, because what you are doing benefits other people as well as yourself.

Denis Waitley

He who has begun his task has half done it.

Horace

Begin difficult things
while they are easy,

Do great things
when they are small.

The difficult things of the world
must once have been easy;

The great things must once have been small...

A thousand mile journey begins with one step.

Lao-Tse

Don't be afraid to take a big step
if one is indicated.

You can't cross a chasm
in two small jumps.

David Lloyd George

You didn't think when you got up this morning that this would be the day your life would change, did you? But it's going to happen because the only thing that stands between you and grand success in living are these two things: Getting started and never quitting! You can solve your biggest problem by getting started, right here and now.

Robert H Schuller

We learn wisdom
from failure much more than from success:
We often discover what will do,
by finding out
what will not do;

and probably he who never made a mistake never made a discovery.

Samuel Smiles

The block of granite which was an obstacle
in the pathway
of the weak,
became a stepping-stone
in the pathway
of the strong.

Thomas Carlyle

The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon,

but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher.

Thomas Henry Huxley

People who fail to achieve their goals usually get stopped by frustration.

They allow frustration to keep them from taking the necessary actions that would support them in achieving their desire.

You get through this roadblock by plowing through frustration, taking each setback as feedback you can learn from, and pushing ahead.

I doubt you'll find many successful people who have not experienced this.

All successful people learn that success is buried on the other side of frustration. Unfortunately, some people don't get to the other side.

Anthony Robbins

Good ideas and innovations must be driven into existence

by courageous patience.

Admiral Hyman Rickover

Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs even though checkered by failure, than to rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy nor suffer much because they live in the gray twilight that know neither victory nor defeat.

Theodore Roosevelt

Our doubts
are traitors,
and make us lose the good we oft might win
by fearing to attempt.

William Shakespeare

Much is said in regard to 'building castles in the air' and one who is given to this building is not always looked upon with favour.

But castles in the air are always necessary before we can have castles on the ground, before we can have castles in which to live.

The trouble with the one who gives himself to building castles in the air is not that he builds them in the air, but that he does not go farther and actualize in life, in character, in material form, the castles he thus builds.

He does a part of the work, a very necessary part, but another equally necessary part remains still undone.

Ralph Waldo Trine

A step in the wrong direction is better than staying
'on the spot' all your life.

Once you're moving forward you can correct your course
as you go.

Your automatic guidance system cannot guide you when you're

Go confidently

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education alone will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

Henry C. Link

We are not in a position in which we have nothing to work with. We already have a start; we already have capacities, talents, direction, missions, callings.

The job is, if we are willing to take it seriously, to help ourselves to be more perfectly what we are, to be more full, more actualizing, more realizing, in fact, what we are in potentiality.

Abraham Maslow

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.

Thomas Huxley

Two dejected assistants of Thomas Edison said:

“We've just completed our seven hundredth experiment and we still don't have the answer. We have failed.”

“No, my friends, you haven't failed” replied Mr. Edison. “It's just that we know more about this subject than anyone else alive. And we're closer to finding the answer, because now we know seven hundred things not to do. Don't call it a mistake. Call it an education.”

Thomas Edison

Never feel guilty
about learning.

Never feel guilty
about wisdom.

That is called enlightenment.

You must understand that you have done what you needed to do; it was all necessary.

And you made all the right choices- all of them!

Ramtha

Life is not a situation, but a process; not static, but dynamic. It's essential element is change, and the great question facing each of us is whether we will channel that change in the directions we want to go, shaping our destiny, or whether we will permit our activities and our character to be determined by those random forces we call fate. To the extent that we procrastinate, we are following the second course.

Edwin C. Bliss

Commit yourself to a dream. You affirm you're created in the image of God, that you have latent abilities, that you deserve to succeed as much as anybody else, and after you begin to believe that somehow, some way, somewhere, sometime, through someone, you can make it.

When you are inspired with a dream, God has hit the ball into your court. Now you have to hit it back with a commitment.

Robert H. Schuller

...Know what you are going to do and then do it and don't backslide. If you make a mistake, make a glorious one. It's like the man who comes to the fork in the road and says, "Which way shall I go, this way or that?"

Go! Take one way and go. There is always the element of timing. Everything has a time and place.

There are many roads we have crossed, many hills we have climbed, and so many dreams we have yet to realize.

Time is not measured by the passing of hours, but by what one does, what one feels, and what one achieves.

The future is what you make it.

To thine own self be true.

To a valiant heart, naught is impossible.

There is no road or ready way to success.

Through the trials of life God will hold our hands.

The higher we climb, the better the view.

Together we stand, divided we fall.

They conquer who believe they can.

There is always room at the top.

Today we follow; tomorrow we lead.

Tomorrow will be a better day if we begin this morning to improve it.

Tomorrows are built on the labors of today.

The future belongs to those who prepare for it.

The leaves of past laurels soon wither.

The hammer of practice drives the nail of success.

Together we stick, divided we're stuck.

To err is human; to forgive, Divine.

The answer to a fool is silence.

The buck stops here.

The word American ends in "I Can."

The will to do, the soul to dare.

Tomorrow is the mirror of what we accomplish today.

To rest is not to conquer.

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Trust in God, but cut the cards yourself.

We go forth to serve.

We learn by doing.

With the Ropes of the Past, we ring the Bells of the Future.

What we are to be we are now becoming.

We build the ladder by which we climb.

We have reached the foothills; the mountain lies ahead.

We harvest what we sow.

We make a living by what we get; we make a life by what we give.

What we are is God's gift to us; what we become is our gift to God.

Why wait for Tomorrow? There is only Today.

"When fortune knocks, open the door," they say. But why make fortune knock by keeping the door shut?

You want to become wise in one lesson: First become a real human being.

Ye shall labor, and find reward.

We have climbed the foothills; the mountains lie ahead.

Opportunity need not knock if the door is already open.

May each member of our class possess the will to do, the soul to dare.

Within ourselves our future lies.

Success awaits anyone who refuses to be discouraged.

Shadows fall behind us as we walk toward the light.

To succeed in our own way!

Grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference.

The way is long—let us go together.
The way is difficult—let us help each other.
The way is joyful—let us share it.
The way is ours alone—let us go in love.
The way opens before us—let us begin.

Tomorrow is but a dream away.

All the wonders you seek are within yourself.

Let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

At the dawning of a new decade let us reach for what is beyond us.

As each of us follows our path in life, we will remember these years. We will remember our friends, the laughter, and the pain. Our smiles reflect the memories locked deep within our hearts. Future dreams shine like bright stars against distant nights. We have grown so much, and yet, we will grow forever.

You to the left and I to the right, for the ways of man must sever. And it may be for a day and a night, and it well may be forever. But whether we part, (for our ways are past our knowing) a pledge from the heart to its fellow heart, here's luck! For we know not where we are going.

We write our own destiny . . . We become what we do.

What appears to be the end, may really be a new beginning.

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe.

Don't confuse the person you are with the person you were or the person you will become.

You are today where your thoughts have brought you; you will be tomorrow where your thoughts take you.

Don't worry about the future, the present is all thou hast, the future will soon be present and the present will soon be past.

Live each day as if your life has just begun.

Reach high, for stars lie hidden in your soul. Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal.

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

The year of the rose is brief; from the first blade blown to the sheaf, from the thin green leaf to the gold, it has time to be sweet and grow old, to triumph and leave not a leaf.

Beyond the horizon stands the dawn of a new decade.

I asked of life: "What have you to offer me?"
And the answer came: "What have you to give?"

We know what we are, but not what we may be.

Learn as if you were to live forever. Live as though you were to die tomorrow.

Walking through life I have found that the hand of friendship touches like no other.

A single dream is more powerful than a thousand realities.

There is a past, but it's gone forever, but there is a future which is still our own.

We are a small audience of life but big fans of living.

We are people building our lives as we strive to create tomorrow today.

Someday our dreams will take us to the heights we wish to fly, for only we have the power to make our dreams come true.

You have to dream a dream to make a dream come true.

Like the new decade, we are just beginning.

Give us today to conquer tomorrow.

To be what we are and to become what we are capable of becoming is the only end of life.

Behind us lies the path of learning . . . ahead, the road to success.

We'll find a way or we'll make one.

The past is my heritage; the present my responsibility; the future my challenge.

You live your life only once, but if you live it right, once is enough.

To achieve all that is possible, we must attempt the impossible. To be as much as we can, we must dream of being more.

Believe in yourself and you can make your dreams into realities.

With every ending there is a brand new beginning.

We were given an inch; we took a mile. That's how we got so far.

Where the present ends, the future begins.

We find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving. Oliver Wendell Holmes Cherish yesterday; live today; reach for tomorrow.

Only those who risk going too far can possibly find how far they can go.

Yesterday is only a dream, tomorrow only a vision, but today we live. If we live as we should, our yesterdays will be dreams of happiness, and our tomorrows will be visions of hope.

The nearest way to glory is to strive to be what you wish to be thought to be.

We have no yesterdays; time took them away. Tomorrow may not be but we have today.

Climb high, climb far, our goal the sky, our aim the stars.

We cannot direct the wind but we can adjust our sails.

A ship in the harbor is safe, but that is not what ships are built for.

I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints. Ephesians 1:18.

Behind you are the shadows of what might have been, and ahead . . . the image of what we hope to be.

We're making our dreams come true with a little help from our friends.

We are the dawn of a new decade. We will pass this way but once. If there is any good we can do, let us do it now for we will pass this way no more.

Time is not measured by the passing of hours but by what one does, what one feels, and what one achieves.

The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step.

If not now - When?

Dreams are for today, tomorrows are forever.

The main goal in life is to live. To live fully and joyously aware of all the possibilities life has to offer.

Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning to the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning. Winston Spencer Churchill, November 10, 1942.

So many roads to choose, we start out walking and learn to run. We've only just begun.
Believe in a dream and make it come true.

Arise, go forth and conquer, for today is the first day of the rest of your life.

The will to do; the soul to dare.

To live our life in our own way . . . To reach for the goals we have set for ourselves . . .
To be what we want to be . . . That is success.

Reach for the heavens, hope for the future. Be all that you can be, love what you are.

Tomorrow is ours to give.

From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the Lord is to be praised! Psalms 113:3

The times we shared will live forever, the memories are ours to treasure.

Remember yesterday, dream about tomorrow, but live today.

In our hands we hold the future.

Time it was, and what a time it was. It was . . . a time of innocence, a time of confidences. Long ago, it must be. I have a photograph to preserve your memories, they're all that's left you.

It matters not what you are thought to be, but what you are.

The world is before you, and you need not take it or leave it as when you came in.

Giving for today, living for tomorrow.

Many a contest together we have won, but now our competition has just begun.

Show kindness and love today, for tomorrow's chance may be lost.

The open door to a new beginning.

Nothing we do changes the past – everything we do changes the future.

Who will, can; who tries, does; who lives, loves.

To know where we stand, to understand where we are going.

Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice. It is not a thing to be waited for, it is a thing to be achieved.

May the promise we show today, be the success you'll see tomorrow.

Cherish yesterday, live today, dream tomorrow.

To love is to live, what you get is just what you give.

We are successful just by the love in our hearts.

We stand at the threshold of the beginning.

Keep your goals in sight and always walk toward them.

Achievement is where our hearts will lead us.

What is done is done, but what lies ahead we have left to do.

Take the world as you find it, but leave it a better place.

To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end to life. Robert Louis Stevenson

The question is not always where we stand, but in which direction we are going.

If we cannot find the road to success, we will make one.

I will not follow where the path may lead, but I will go where there is no path, and I will leave a trail. Muriel Strode

It is by education I learn to do by choice what other men do by the constraint of fear. Aristotle

Today well-lived makes every yesterday a dream and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

In ourselves our future lies.

They conquer who believe they can.

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe.

Tomorrow is ours to give.

The past is my heritage, the present my responsibility, the future my challenge.

To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

Special times and special places, special friends together; the moments pass so quickly, but the memories last forever.

The key to happiness is having dreams - the key to success is making them come true.

The sunset of a beautiful past is in the sunrise of a bright tomorrow.

What we hold of yesterday is only a memory, but tomorrow is an accomplishment that is yet to be made.

"Education is the apprenticeship of life." Robert Willmott

"If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest." Benjamin Franklin

"A human being is not, in any proper sense, a human being till he is educated." Horace Mann

"Education is the cheap defense of nations." Edmund Burke

"He is to be educated not because he is to make shoes, nails and pins, but because he is a man." William Channing

"It is by education I learn to do by choice, what other men do by the constraint of fear." Aristotle

"It is on the sound education of the people that the security and destiny of every nation rest." Louis Kossuth

Millennium Mottos

"We are always getting ready to live, but never living. " Ralph Waldo Emerson
This changes with our class and the turning of the millennium. Tomorrow is here.

The power of time is recognized with the turning of the millennium. Yet the future changes with every simple decision made. Tomorrow is in our hands.

Our graduation, like the changing millennium, is not the end of the past but the beginning of the future.

We have made history graduating at the turn of the millennium
But it is the future we will change.

We have made history
And we will change the future.

We have made history
But it is the future we will most impact.
